

CARE Hospitals Group appoints Shalabh Dang as Chief Sales and Marketing Officer

21 February 2024 | News

His last assignment was with Red.Health as the Chief Revenue Officer

CARE Hospitals, a leading healthcare group in India, has announced the appointment of Shalabh Dang as its Chief Sales and Marketing Officer. With a distinguished career spanning over two and a half decades, DAng brings a wealth of cross-domain experience to his new role.

Before joining CARE Hospitals, he served as the Group Head - Domestic, International Sales and collections for Fortis Healthcare. His last assignment was with Red.Health as the Chief Revenue Officer. His impressive career also includes notable stints at renowned companies such as Philips, Vodafone, and TATA Teleservices.

DAng's contributions to the healthcare industry were recognised with the prestigious Top 100 Global Healthcare Leader Award in Dubai in 2019, presented by the International Forum on Advancements in Healthcare (IFAH).

CARE Hospitals anticipates that Dang's strategic vision and leadership will play a pivotal role in advancing the organisation's marketing initiatives, digital transformation, boosting revenue growth in domestic and international markets and strengthening its position as a leader in the healthcare sector.
